

2025 Literacy Summit

Friday, September 5, 2025

UNO Community Engagement Center (CEC)

9:00 AM – 3:30 PM

Summit Purpose:

The Literacy Summit brings together higher education faculty who work with preservice teachers to build a shared understanding of literacy practices, including the Science of Reading (SoR), and to foster collaboration across disciplines. Through engaging sessions and discussions, participants will explore foundational concepts, disciplinary applications, and commit to actionable steps that enhance literacy instruction and teacher preparation in alignment with UNO's metropolitan mission.

Summit Schedule Preview:

Morning

Literacy Landscape in NE

The Big Picture and Language of Literacy

Science of Reading (SoR) 101: Workshop on the buzz, foundations, and misconceptions around SoR

Lunch

Discuss & Reflect on morning sessions while enjoying lunch with colleagues.

Afternoon: Literacy+ Panel

Hear from UNO faculty on how literacy is integrated in everything we do and everyone we serve (e.g., multilingual learners, discipline and content areas, music and movement, dyslexia and learner variability)

Collaboration time

"Choose your own Commitment/Adventure" to focus on around literacy
